

EVS Project : YOUTHink Different

Sending and Coordinating Organization: Associazione Futuro Digitale

Hosting Organization: KEAN – Cell of Alternative Youth Activities

Place: Municipality of Evrotas

City: Skala, Lakonias

Duration : 4 April 2016 - 4 October 2016

List of further activities

1. Operation of hostel at Geraki Lakonias:

The Hostel at Geraki, Lakonias belongs to the public body of Municipality of Evrotas and hosts every year many tourists who visit the region of Lakonia especially during the summer period. At the hostel the services that the volunteers will offer:

- Reception services;
- Information center services.

At this hostel cultural events with other participants will be organized in cooperation with the local community of Geraki, Lakonias.

2. Participation to educational programs of Municipality of Evrotas with pupils at public schools , in educational activities at “Votanic Garden of Ippokratis” . Research on web for new training methods.

In these educational programs with school children volunteers will participate as support staff and as supervisors to the children in cooperation with the teachers and KEAN's staff. Also the volunteers will research for innovative methods of training and will suggest their proposal for new innovative educational projects in the field of environment, of bullying, of interculturalism etc.

3. Participation in other services on the main office of Municipality of Evrotas in cooperation with the staff of the Municipality. Translation in Italian language some texts for uploading to the website of Municipality - social media update.

The Municipality of Evrotas organizes many events which concern the main programs, tasks and activities which carries out during all the yeas and presents them to “events”, in which the volunteers will have main roles in the coordinating and organizational part of them in cooperation with the permanent staff of Municipality. Also, some days maybe the volunteers will have to translate some articles or press releases of the webpage of the Municipality or upload photos of events.

4. Meeting with the volunteers ,other NGOs and institutions for planning and organizing voluntary actions in the local communities of Laconia.

In cooperation with the Municipality of Evrotas local voluntary actions for “green cities” will take place during all the period of the project like actions for recycling objects or cleaning a beach. The volunteers will be responsible for planning and organizing a Voluntary Action according to the needs of the Municipality. The residents of local communities will be informed by the volunteers for the actions with leaflets or posters. In cooperation with KEAN’s staff a Voluntary Network Office will be established.

5. Research on Erasmus+ guide for the submission of European programs, active participation as support staff on projects maybe NGO KEAN implements during the period of the project.

The volunteers will help NGO KEAN on the communication with Italian Municipalities, NGOs, institutions which are located in rural areas for establishment of new partnerships in international level and in submission of new projects for youth.